The church was beautifully decorated with white gladioli and palms.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of ice blue chantilly lace and nylon tulle over taffeta. The crescent neckline of the lace bodice was accented with a sweeping skirt of gathered flounces of nylon tulle which were enriched by chantilly lace traced motifs.

The bride's elbow length veil fell from a tiarra of matching lace and she carried an orchid with tube roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss LaRue Dodd, the groom's sister was her maid of honor. Miss Johnnie Delores Henderson, a friend of the bride, and Miss Selmarie Matthijetz, cousin of the bride was junior bridesmaid. Little Misses Nancy Ann Matthijetz, cousin of the bride, and Debbie Dodd, sister of the groom were flower girls.

The attendants were all dressed in blue nylon tulle dresses with matching hats. The dresses were full gathered floor length and the attendants carried yellow daisies.

Donald Ray Moerbe, brother of the bride, served as best man. Dean Dodd, cousin of the groom, served as groomsman, and James Ovcarik, friend of the groom, was junior groomsman. Walter Matthijetz, cousin of the bride was ring bearer. Albert Kaltwasser, uncle of the bride, and Edward Tisdell, uncle of the groom served as ushers.

Miss LaVon Siegmund, cousin of the bride sang, "O, Perfect Love" and "I Love Thee", accompanied by Mrs. Harry Namdark blue dress with matching ken.

The bride's mother wore a accessories and the groom's mother wore a gray dress with white accessories, each wearing a white carnation corsage.

A reception followed at the Firemen's Hall. In the house party were Mrs. Victor Moerbe and Miss Elizabeth Dodd.

After a wedding trip the couple will make their home in Houston.
