

Miss Dorothy Moerbe Honored With Shower

The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hughes in Somerville was the scene of a miscellaneous shower honoring and introducing Miss Dorothy Jane Moerbe, bride-elect of Nello Strickland Jr., Friday night, Feb. 27, from 7:30 to 9:30.

The hostesses for this lovely shower were Mrs. Earl Bassler, Mrs. Joe Rogers, Mrs. Jack Wight, Mrs. R. C. Houston, and Mrs. Howard Hughes.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Hughes, the honoree, Dorothy Jane, the bride-to-be's mother, Mrs. Eric Moerbe of Giddings, and the groom-to-be's mother, Mrs. Nello Strickland. Each wore a corsage of white carnations.

Guests were registered in a white satin bride's book by Miss Mary Ann McMinn.

The color scheme of green and white was used and flowers placed at vantage points throughout the house. White wedding bells with satin streamers and arrangement of white carnations and candles were used in the dining room. Delicious refreshments of cookies, fancy shaped green and white sandwiches, mints, and lime punch were served.

Miss Myra Woods presided at the punch bowl assisted by Miss Betty Ann Ralph.

The honoree received many beautiful and useful gifts.
