

In Church Ceremony At Serbin, August 22

The St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Serbin was the scene of Miss Ottilia Nell Moerbe of Giddings and R. H. Muegge Jr. of Brenham Saturday, August 22, at seven o'clock in the evening. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eric W. Moerbe of Giddings and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. R. H. Muegge of Brenham.

A color scheme of white and blue was used in decorating the church for the impressive double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. A. Arndt. Tall standards of branched candelabra holding blue candles formed the background for floor baskets of white gladiolis and mums.

Jane Winkler, the organist, of Giddings presented a program of pre-nuptial music, accompanied Mrs. Nello Strickland Jr. (matron of honor) of El Paso, as she sang, "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer" and played the traditional wedding march.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a long ice-blue eyel-embroidery organdy dress of cascading ruffles, ruffles, ruffles. The bodice was made of embroidered organdy with a low neckline and short sleeves with pedal point embroidered gloves. She wore a Juliet cap which held her pointed elbow length veil of ice-blue imported English illusion. She carried a small white prayer book overlaid with a white orchid and lillies of the valley.

The bride's honor attendant was Mrs. Nello Strickland Jr. sister of the bride Misses Shirley Zoch, Peggy Koester, Betty Caldwell, and Martha Teinert were bridesmaids. They were gowned in identical dresses of colonial blue organdy, while the matron of honor was of light blue. They carried a nosegay of pink carnations.

Little Miss Brenda Dianne Moerbe of Houston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Moerbe, served her aunt as junior bridesmaid, wearing an identical gown as the matron of honor, and carried a nosegay of pink carnations. Little Theresa Carol Quebe of Brenham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Quebe of Brenham, niece of the bride, served as flower girl. She wore an identical ice-blue gown of the bride and carried a basket of mixed flowers. Little Roger Randermann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Randermann suit of white linen.

Roland Lueckemeyer of Houston attended the groom as best man. Doc Holtkamp, Elroy Kunkel, Billy Moerbe and Waldon Kettler were groomsmen, and the ushers were T. C. Quebe and Amos Randerman of Brenham.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Moerbe chose a powdre blue lace dress, navy accessories, pale pink hat. She wore a pale pink carnation corsage.

Mrs. Muegge, mother of the groom, wore a navy blue dress of crepe with navy accessories and hat. Her corsage was of pink carnations also.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride in Serbin. Mrs. Jerry Joe Moerbe registered the guests. Mrs. T. C. Quebe assisted by Miss Janelle Kruse served the wedding cake. Misses Miriam Tate, Marilyn Rost, Rosie Richter and Jane Winkler opened and arranged the gifts. Barbecue and all the trimmings were served at the wedding to around 800 guests.

When Mr. and Mrs. Muegge left for their wedding trip to Mexico, the bride was wearing a fall suit of gray poodle cloth, a small hat of red velvet, matching bag and shoes with a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Muegge is a graduate of Giddings High School.

Mr. Muegge is a graduate of Brenham High School and Blinn College.

The couple will make their home on a farm near Brenham where the groom is engaged in ranching.
