BIEBAS—MUTSCHER

In a pretty church wedding Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in Ebenezer church at Manheim, Miss Louise Biebas became the wife of Mr. Marvin Mutscher of Serbin with the Rev. E. J. Riske officiating.

The bride was attired in the usual bridal satin made Princess Style which flowed out into a train with a sweetheart neckline.

Her veil was caught up by a crown of imitation seed pearls and was bordered by a 3 inch lace, her bouquet consisted of white roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Amanda Biebas served her sister as maid of honor, while Dorothy Malke, Esther Mutscher and Irene Gersch served as brides maids and wore dresses in the new fall shades and carried arm bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums.

Little LaVerne Mutschink and Dorothy Mae Brockermeier served as flower girls. Clarence Mutscher served his brother as best man.

Albert Biebas, Milton Moerbe and Clarence Durrenberger were the ushers. Mr. Gus Malke and Otto Gersch, uncles of the bride and groom respectively served as toastmasters.

After the ceremony of the wedding party repaired to the home of the bride's mother where a jolly barbecue supper was served to about 50 guests.

A pretty three tiered wedding cake adorned the table.

The bride is the oldest daughter of Mrs. Robert Biebas of Manheim, while the groom is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Mutscher of Serbin. The newly weds will make their home in Houston where both have employment and their many friends wish for them a long and happy wedded life.
