

MUTSCHINK — VOLKERS
NUPTIALS SOLEMNIZED

Miss Verna Mae Mutschink, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Mutschink, and Henry Dick Volk-ers, Jr., of Austin, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Volk-ers were mar-ried Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents in the presence of members of the immediate families.

Rev. Larry Stokes, pastor of the First Methodist Church, officiated in the double ring ceremony before an improvised altar.

White mums in tall floor bas-kets were on either side of the mantle and on the mantle were dwarf Chrysanthemums in vases.

The bride chose for her wedding a dressmaker suit of navy blue gabardine and white gloves. Her accessories were navy. Her cor-sage was a white mum. She wore a white scarf with a silver pin.

Her only attendant was her sis-ter Miss Dorothy Lee Mutschink, who wore a brown suit with match-ing accessories and a corsage of white chrysanthemums. The groom's uncle Cornell Droemer attended him.

The bride's mother wore navy crepe and the groom's mother black crepe. Both wore corsages of white chrysanthemums.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents imme-diatly following the ceremony. Miss Carolyn Volk-ers, sister of the groom, registered the 135 guests.

The bride and groom were grad-uates of the 1946 class of the Gid-dings High School. She had been employed in the office of the City of Giddings the past three years.

He attended Texas Lutheran College at Seguin and is now em-ployed by the Western Electric Company in Austin, where they will make their home.
