

The Giddings Star

July 17, 1942

ASCHENLECK — NAMKEN NUPTIALS SOLEMNIZED

Miss Olga Namken, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Namken, became the bride of George Aschenbeck of Houston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Aschenbeck at the Martin Luther church Sunday afternoon at 4:30, the Rev. Walter Tillmanns officiating.

To the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Anna Lora Mueller, Herbert Koehler, best man entered. Bridesmaids were Misses Marguerite and Dorine Durrenberger, Etta Schueler and Lorene Aschenbeck wearing floor length blue organdie frocks over taffeta. Little Ruth Namken, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid and wore a floor length organdie frock the same shade worn by the maids. Mrs. Herbert Koehler, matron of honor, wore pink organdie over taffeta. She carried pink carnations. The maids carried yellow carnations.

Groomsmen were Erwin Namken, Freddie Foerster, Alvin Aschenbeck, and Myron Namken.

—The bride was gowned in white slipper satin trimmed with bands of lace insertion, with square neckline and puff sleeves. She wore a strand of pearls. Her long veil of illusion, extending over the gored skirt, fell from a tiara of seed pearls. She carried an arm bouquet of white asters and fern from which fell long white streamers.

Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's parents. They will make their home in Houston.