

Winchester Couple Observe Golden Wedding Anniver- sary Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Noack, residing near Winchester, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on Easter Sunday with all their children present. Their children include Herman, Paul and Otto Noack, Mrs. Otto Hiescher and Mrs. Walter Karisch of Winchester, Mrs. Alfred Schultz of Kentucky and Mrs. Adolf Herbrich of Houston. Besides these they have 25 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. About 200 guests were present to congratulate them and extend their best wishes on this rare occasion.

Rev. E. Rathgeber, their pastor, addressed the couple basing his remarks on Luke 24:29: Abide with us for the evening draweth nigh and the day is far spent. The grandchildren honored them with the song, Abide with me.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Noack are prosperous farmers residing on their farm on Pin Oak Creek near Winchester, where they have lived for the past 48 years. Before this they lived at Warda.

Our best wishes are extended to the aged couple. May God's blessing rest on them in the future as it has in the past.
