

Norville-Massey Vows Fold at Dime Box

Miss Nina Jane Norville became the bride of Hardy Eugene Massey in a double-ring ceremony in Dime Box Baptist Church recently.

The rites were performed by the Rev. Earl Humphreys.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ocie Norville of Dime Box. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Massey of Dime Box.

The altar was beautifully decorated with the arrangement of white gladioli and white asters, fern trees, and candelabra.

Miss Janell Curlee of Dime Box furnished the traditional wedding music. Miss Nellene Eichler of Dime Box sang "Always."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a ballerina-length wedding gown. The strapless bodice of white lace over taffeta was finished in a roll cord of lace, with a bolero of white lace over taffeta. The full skirt was net over taffeta. She wore a finger-tip veil.

The bride's bouquet was white roses with satin streamers with lillies of the valley and white net.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Ray Ripple of Houston, wore a ballerina-length gown of pink net over pink taffeta. She wore a pink hairdress to match the gown. She carried a bouquet of white roses with satin streamers and pink net.

Best man was Ray Ripple of Houston. The ushers were Carl Bridges and John Proske of Dime Box.

Mrs. Kenneth Hibler was in charge of the bride's book.

A reception was held at the Church. The wedding cake was a tier layer cake with a miniature bride and groom.

Mrs. Hubert Norville served at the punch bowl. Mrs. Charlie Wheelus and Mrs. John Norville served the wedding cake.

After a short wedding trip the couple will make their home in Pasadena.
