The Giddings News July 2, 1920

SURPRISE SHOWER.

was a surprise miscellaneous in this book. shower given by Miss Maggie Punch was Folkes in compliments to Miss ing room, the table being beau-Eola Tate, whose marriage to Mr. Forest Lee Bouchier, will take place on July 6th.

The hostess was assisted in a contact spin of the contact spin

White was reflected in all deco- Mrs. J. R. Folkes. rations of the home.

the contest of pinning on the Bride's Banquet, the honoree was then blindfolded and led by has been going on at the Bapbride, the curtain was raised day. and she put her hands into a ditions made to the church who large basket of beautiful and were baptized, most all of them useful gifts.

Mrs. H. C. Pipkin of Amarillo had charge of the Bride's Book A very enjoyable affair of and all took pleasure in writing Wednesday afternoon, June 30,

Punch was served in the din-

The hostess was assisted in The color motif of Pink and entertaining by her mother,

After the guests had tried in BAPTIST MEETING CLOSES.

The Baptist meeting which the hostess up to the picture- tist church came to a close Sun There were some 45 adthat night. '