

The Giddings News

June 13, 1941

TONN - DUNK

A pretty wedding was solemnized Sunday at 5 P. M. in the Holy Cross church at Warda when Miss Lillian Dunk, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dunk of Warda, and Rudolph Tonn, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Tonn of Manheim, were united in marriage. The bride was dressed in white embroidered organdy, wearing a bonnet shaped crown set with orange blossoms and pearls. Her attendants were Alice Ruth Dunk and Ruth Tonn dressed in green, Ruth Mertink, Mildred Tonn, dressed in orchid, Tusnel-da Dunk and Florence Driessner in blue. The maids' dresses were all made alike and each carried bouquets of pink and white carnations, roses and fern.

Mrs. Hanna Mickan served her sister as matron of honor and was dressed in pink. Little George Dunk was ring-bearer and Junell Dunk and Beverly Ann Ristan were flower girls, also dressed in pink taffeta.

The groom wore a dark suit and was attended by Bill Galipp and Daniel Mickan. Ushers were Fred Foerster, Wilford Dunk, Victor Tonn, Arthur Dunk, Richard Kissmann, and Belmont Dunk. Henry Dunk, Jr. served his brother-in-law as best man.

After the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's parents consisting of pork and beef barbecue with all the "trimmings," to members of the families only.

The bride and groom were presented many beautiful and useful gifts. After midnight lunch was served, the guests departed wishing the newlyweds many happy years of married life.

The young couple will make their home with the groom's parents where the editor knows they will be sure to get plenty to eat. He joins their many friends in wishing them well.