

Twenhafel-Emmrich
Vows Exchanged
At Harrold

Miss Ruth Julian Twenhafel became the bride of Norfleet H. Emmrich in a double-ring candlelight ceremony at Immanuel Lutheran Church at Harrold, Texas, on Tuesday, Aug. 8, at 8 p. m. The Rev. A. G. Twenhafel, brother of the bride, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Twenhafel of LaGrange, the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Emmrich of Giddings.

Mrs. Ed Wiederaenders sang "O Perfect Love" and "Today, O Lord, We at Thine Altar Stand," accompanied by Miss Rosalyn Schoppa, organist, who also played Handel's "Largo" for the processional and Mendelssohn's "Midsummer Night's Dream," for the recessional. During the ceremony Miss Schoppa played Schuman's "Traumerei."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gowned in ice blue satin, enhanced with ice blue chantilly lace. The gathered circular skirt extended into a train. The yoke was trimmed with a full ruffle of the lace. Her veil of ice blue French illusion was held by a satin Juliet cap. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and white satin streamers. She also carried her mother's lace handkerchief.

Miss Evelyn Mrnustik of Caldwell, friend of the bride, was maid of honor and Miss Joyleen Jaster, cousin of the bridegroom, was the bridesmaid. Their gowns of American beauty taffeta were similar to that of the bride's. They carried arrangements of American beauty asters set off by light blue taffeta.

Miss Janet Dunk, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. Her gown was of light blue taffeta, fashioned after the bride's dress.

Marvin Twenhafel, brother of the bride, was best man, and James Emmrich, cousin of the bridegroom, was groomsman. Alfred Kohl and Leonard Fritsche were ushers.

Mrs. Twenhafel, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Emmrich, mother of the bridegroom, chose navy blue dresses, with matching accessories. Their corsages were of white carnations.

A reception was held at the home of the Rev. Twenhafel immediately following the ceremony. Seasonal flowers were placed about the rooms. Mrs. Henry Dunk Jr., sister of the bridegroom, registered about 100 guests.

Miss Evelyn Mrnustik served the three-tiered wedding cake and Miss Joyleen Jaster served the punch. Others in the house party were the Misses Lucille and Rosalyn Schoppa, Earlene Kohl, and Mrs. Ed. Wiederaenders.

The bride was attired in a brown eyelet suit with brown and tan accessories and a white orchid corsage for their wedding trip to Ardmore and Turner Falls, Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmrich are making their home in Giddings where the bride is secretary-teacher at the Immanuel Lutheran Church and the bridegroom is employed at the post office.

The bride is a graduate of Caldwell High School and Blinn College, and attended Valparaiso University, Valparaiso, Ind. She is a member of Beta Sigma Phi, International Business Women's Sorority.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Giddings High School and served in the Army Air Force for three years and three months.
