

Church Rites

The marriage vows of Miss Evelyn Wagner and Sgt. Donald Straley were exchanged on Sunday, June 11 at 4:30 p. m. at the Bethany Lutheran Church at Greens Creek.

The Rev. Paul C. Eifert read the formal double-ring rites.

The traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Harry Namken and she also accompanied Miss Jeanette Urban as she sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in nylon tulle, a fitted bodice fashioned with a round yoke edged in a double row of nylon lace ruffles. Her skirt was fashioned with lace ruffles which began at the front of the skirt and extended into a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of nylon net fell from a queens shape crown, covered with seed pearls. She wore a pearl necklace and matching earbobs. Three small orchids were arranged in a hand corsage.

Miss Mildred Wagner, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. She wore yellow nylon organza over taffeta, with matching mitts and headdress. Her bouquet was of orchid gladioli.

Misses Wilma Bohot and Helen Wagner were bridesmaids. Their gowns were of powder blue organza over taffeta, fashioned similar to the maid of honor's gown. Both carried bouquets of yellow gladioli.

Marvin Lorenz of Lubbock was best man. Ushers were Willie Wolf of Damon and Wallace Zoch of Malone.

The mother of the bride wore a navy blue print sheer with black accessories, and a white gladioli corsage.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where approximately 90 guests were present.

Miss Ruth Miertschin was in charge of the bride's book and Miss Anita Wagner cut the cake.

For travel, the bride chose a rust brown crepe with brown and white accessories. Three small orchids were her corsage.

After a honeymoon to Pennsylvania and different points of interest, the couple plans to make their home in Austin.

Mrs. Straley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Wagner. She has been employed in Austin at Wukasch Bros. for almost two years.

Sgt. Straley is the son of Harry Straley of Sharon, Pennsylvania. He is a graduate of the Ellwood City High School in Pennsylvania, and has been with the air force for the past four years. He is now stationed at the Bergstrom Airforce Base at Austin.
