WARREN--CHALMERS

Mr. Willie Warren of Giddings and Miss Bessie Chalmers of Bastrop were married Saturday. The bride is the daughter of C. Chalmers, formerly of McDade but for the past twenty years county treasurer of that county. Willie is a native of Lee County and he is a splendid young man who has many friends.

The happy couple passed through Giddings Tuesday on their way to Austin here they will make their home. The News along with their many friends wishes them all the joys and prosperity of life.

The following announcement appeared in the Bastrop Advertiser:

An interesting wedding was solemnized at 11 o'clock, Saturday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Chalmers, when Miss Bessie Holbrook Chalmers became the bride of Mr. W. H. Warren of Giddings, Texas. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. N. Jett, pastor of the Christian church of Bastrop. Preceding the marriage, Mrs. W. J. Rogers sang "At Dawning," accompanied by Miss Fay Chalmers at the piano. Miss Fay Chalmers played Mendelssohn's Wedding march Beautiful roses with a background of ferns made the scene more beautiful. Many friends were present and registered their names in a book provided for the occasion and presided over by Mrs. Harry Johnson. Exquisite and useful presents were tokens of the love and esteem in which Miss Bessie is held by her many friends.

The bride wore a lovely coat suit of blue and trimmed in squirrel and accessories to match. The bridal bouquet was of roses and lillies of the valley.

Following the ceremony the guests were invited into the dining room where all was lovely as a "wedding bell" and each was served with a delicious salad course. Needless to say so popular a bride as Miss Bessie, escaped the good old time "rice shower" at the station where her many friends gave her a cheerful send off.
