Watson-Pampell
Rites Read In Houston Sunday

Miss Malvina Watson, daughter of Mrs. Clarissy Watson of Gonzales, La., became the bride of Charlie Pampell, son of Mrs. Emma Pampell of Dime Box, Sunday morning, March 19, at 7 o'clock in rites held in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Houston. The Rev. Oliver K. Harms officiated the double-ring ceremony.

The bride's gown was of white satin and lace. Her fingertip veil was held by pearls. The bridal bouquet was of white roses with satin streamers.

Helen Pampell, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She wore a white organdy gown with pink and white muff bouquet.

Louise Pampell, sister of the bridegroom, and Carrie Lee White, sister of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore pink and green organdy gowns, and carried pink and green muff bouquets with satin streamers, respectively.

Doris Mitschke, flower girl, cousin of the bridegroom, wore white nylon with white muff bouquet and satin streamers.

Clarence Pampell served as ring bearer, and Ervin Pampell as best man. Walter and Alvin Pampell were ushers.

Vincent Watson, brother of the bride, gave the bride in marriage.

Following the ceremony a dinner of barbecue and all the trimmings was served at the home of the bridegroom's mother at Dime Box, with about 100 guests present.
