

The Giddings News
January 20, 1920

KELLY - WHEATLY WEDDING

Saturday afternoon, January 17th, Mr. Horace M. Kelly and Miss Nell A. Wheatly of Tanglewood were married at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Astin, in Giddings. Rev. Garrett of the Methodist Church officiated. While such might have been known to their friends such would take place some time, it was not generally known that it was going to take place that day. It seems the couple came to Giddings with their plans only known to themselves and quietly sought the County Clerk's office where the necessary papers were received and then a preacher was soon found and at the appointed hour the words were said that made this young couple happy. Miss Wheatly is the youngest of three daughters of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Wheatly of Lexington. Her father being a prominent banker and merchant of that town and widely known over the county, where his daughter was reared and attended the school of that place where she graduated and then attended Sam Houston Normal and Southwestern University before teaching one term in the northern part of the county. In June 1918 Miss Wheatly was checked in as agent for the Sap at Tanglewood and has held that position since. Besides being a school teacher, rail road agent and a young lady possessed of many friends, she is also known to be well talented in music. Mr. Kelly is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Kelly of near Tanglewood, one of the oldest and most highly respected families of the county, who possesses large farming interests and has been interested in raising fine cattle of late years and his son Horace was connected with him in that industry. Mr. Horace Kelly only lately arrived home from "over-seas" where he saw actual service for Uncle Sam during the late war. Being a Lee County product where he has been raised he is too well known for any comments only to say that, he is the kind of young men who possesses a large circle of friends and has that "get up and go" about him which insures a bright future for him. Mr. and Mrs. Kelly will remain at Tanglewood for awhile until he disposes of his interests there and then they will go to West Texas where he is interested in a ranch.

The News joins the many friends of this young couple in wishing them all success and prosperity through life's journey.