

MISS KRAUSE, EDGAR WRIGHT
TAKE VOWS IN AUSTIN

Marriage vows were exchanged Friday night in St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Austin by Miss Ruth Naomi Krause and Edgar Lee Wright. The Rev. Albert F. Jesse officiated at the informal double-ring rites.

The bride is the daughter of Mr and Mrs. Herman T. Krause of McAllen. She is a graduate of Edinburg High School and Durham's Business College of Austin, and for the past two and a half years has been employed by the State Department of Health.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wright, Austin, the bridegroom attended Austin High School, and has been employed by the Jack Stableford Pontiac Company for the past four years.

Palms, candelabra and baskets of white gladioli decorated the church for the nuptial ceremony.

Miss Marguerite Mesenbring sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "The Wedding Benediction" accompanied by John J. Socha, who also played the traditional wedding marches.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a powder blue suit with navy and white accessories. Her jewelry was a double strand of pearls, and she carried a white Bible topped with an orchid and surrounded by shattered carnations.

Mrs. Ray Wright, sister of the bride, was matron-of-honor. She wore a beige suit with navy accessories, and carried a colonial bouquet of red gladioli.

Ray Wright, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were John Krause of McAllen, brother of the bride, and Vernon Webb, cousin of the bridegroom, and was served by Mrs. Joe Ray Wright, in charge of the bride's book.

The bride's mother wore a black dress with a white carnation corsage, and the bridegroom's mother wore blue, also with a white carnation corsage.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will be at home at 900 W. 10th., Austin.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Herman T. Krause and John, Caroline, Edward, Magdalene, Harold, Jeanette and Margaret Krause, all of McAllen; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Herman, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Webb, Mrs. G. W. Webb and Mrs. Berry Webb, all of Lytton Springs; Victor Krause of San Marcos; and Walter Krause of Alpine.
