SPRUILL — YORK TAKE VOWS

Miss Martha Mae Spruill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Martin, became the bride of Fred York, son of Mrs. Erie York, Friday evening December 23 at the home of the bride's parents.

Rev. H. L. McLerran, pastor of the First Baptist Church, performed the single ring ceremony before the beautifully lighted Christmas tree. She was given in marriage by her father.

The bride was attended by her sister Miss Josie Spruill as maid of honor and her cousin Miss Sue Lunsford. Frank Burttschell was best man.

Mrs. York wore blue gabardine with blue blouse and hat and white gloves. She carried a white Bible. Her corsage was white glads.

The maid of honor wore blue corduroy with black accessories and Miss Lunsford wore pink corduroy with white blouse.

The bride's mother wore brown gabardine with brown accessories and the groom's mother wore a fuchsia suit with black accessories. Both wore corsages of pink carnations.

Miss Helen Burttschell registered more than 50 guests.

Following the ceremony a reception was held. Red candles gleamed in the dining room with its Christmas decorations where Miss Rose Marie Mutschink served punch and Miss Bobbie Jean Placke served cake squares from the lace laid table centered with the two-tiered wedding cake.

After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Houston, where the groom is a reserve in the Navy.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Robert Nichols of Madisonville, Mr and Mrs. C. L. Garrett of Waller, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Klemm and daughter of McDade.
