Bamsch—Zoch Nuptia's

In a pretty church wedding Easter Sunday at Holy Cross Luth. Church Warda, Miss Louise Bamsch became the wife of Theodore Zoch of Giddings with the Rev. P. C. Eiffert officiating. The bride (second daughter) of Mrs. Ernestine Bamsch was attired in a flowing bridal gown made along fitted lines and tight sleeves and wearing a mother-of-pearl initialed brooch, (a gift of the groom). She carried a bouquet of white carnations. Her long trained veil was caught up by a coronet of simulated seed pearls and she was attended by Miss Loring Mitschke as maid of honor, dressed in light blue brocaded taffeta with matching accessories; while the four bride's maids all dressed in identical teal blue taffeta floor length gowns with accessories to match, were Adele and Alma Zoch and Hermine and Dorine Bamsch and little Bernell Bamsch was the flower girl.

The groom (third son of Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Zoch) wore a dark blue suit and was served by Marvin Zoch and Walter Bamsch as best men, while Telford and Gus Zoch, Eddie Lehmann and Erwin Prellop were the ushers.

After the ceremony the bridal procession repaired to the home of the bride's mother where a juicy barbecue supper (prepared by Theodore Hoble and Ernst Lorenz) with all the accompanying good things to eat awaited them.
