Dessie Fischer and Helmuth Zoch Wed

Miss Dessie Fischer became the bride of Helmuth Zoch of Austin at the Saint John's Lutheran church, Sunday at 5 p. m. with the Rev. Gus Sager reading the service.

Given in marriage by her father Frank Fischer, the bride wore an ivory satin gown. A row of tiny buttons extended from the sweetheart neckline to her waist. The lace yoke, which was made from the trimming on her mother's wedding dress and short peplum was edged with silk lace. The extremely full skirt fell into a long train. Her finger tip veil of bridal illusion was attached to a Juliet cap with orange blossoms. For something old she wore her mother's locket. She carried a bouquet of white gladioli.

Mrs. Karl Klotz attended her sister as matron of honor. Miss Mildred Zoch, sister of the bridegroom served as maid of honor. Mrs. D. D. Steeger of Port Lavaca, Miss Lillian Diebel and Miss Nora Schroeder of Thrall and Miss Nola Persky bride's maids. All wore frocks fashioned alike of blue taffeta shading from Cocktail to Copenhagen. They carried colonial bouquets of rainbow asters, tied with streamers to match their dresses.

Fred Zoch of Fort Sill, Okla., was best man, and groomsmen were Franklin and Gilbert Fischer, Frederick Schultz, Herbert and Eldor Zoch of Winchester.

The ceremony was performed before an altar banked with ferns and decorated with white asters. Tapers in candelabra were lighted by Gus Persky and Albert Lee Lange. Mrs. W. C. Stokes of Jarrell sang "Oh Perfect Love" accompanied by Mrs. Gus Sager, who also played the traditional wedding marches.

A bridal supper was given at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fischer. Miss Laverne Spiegelbauer cut the three tiered cake which was topped with wedding bells, and encircled with pom pom asters. Miss Laverne Schultz of Austin and Miss Bette Schultz of Houston assisted in serving the cake. Mrs. Ernest Swenson was in charge of the guest book.

As the couple left for a wedding trip to Carlsbad Caverns, N. M., the bride was wearing a frock of gray rabbit hair wool, with heavy accessories, and a gaily message. Mr. and Mrs. Zoch will make their home in Austin at 910 East 49.

Mrs. Zoch attended Seguin Lutheran College, graduated from S. S. T. C. of San Marcos. The past two years she has taught in Leesville. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Zoch of Winchester, attended school in Houston and is connected with a firm in Austin.

Guests from out of town present were: Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schwinge, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Schultz and families of Houston; Mr. and Mrs. Emil Zoch, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lehman, Mr. and Mrs. Eldor Zoch, Mr. and Mrs. R. D.
