

Zoch-Lehmann Vows Told At Warda

Miss Evelyn Zoch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin T. Zoch, became the bride of Ernest E. Lehmann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Lehmann, in a double-ring ceremony at the Holy Cross Evangelical Lutheran Church at Warda on Oct. 8. The Rev. Paul C. Eifert officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white bridal satin. The bodice and long sleeves were entirely made of fine lace, buttoned in back and a long lace peplum, followed by a long train. Her finger tip veil of illusion was held by a crown of orange blossoms and lace.

She carried a bouquet of white rosebuds with long satin streamers. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls.

Miss Hattie Zoch of Austin, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She was dressed in a gown of taffeta and net, with hat and mitts to match. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Willie Lehmann, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

The bridesmaids were Misses Florence Koslan, Bernice Walther, Laverne Zoch, and Edna Siegmund. They were gowned in taffeta in rainbow colors with hats and mitts to match. All carried bouquets of white carnations. They each wore a single strand of pearls.

Groomsmen were Herbert Foerster, Raymond Zoch, Freddie Lehmann, and Roy Lehmann.

The ushers were H. M. Zoch and Vastine Pietsch.

Prof. Lange provided the wedding marches.

The mother of the bride wore a tan suit, brown accessories, and a carnation corsage, while the mother of the bridegroom wore a brown suit and accessories and a carnation corsage.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents immediately following the ceremony, where a barbecue supper with all the trimmings was served to approximately 225 guests.

The linen laid table held a four tiered wedding cake, the shape of an altar.

Miss Viola Mitschke of Austin was in charge of the bride's book.

For a wedding trip to the Rio Grande Valley and Mexico, the bride chose a green linen suit, nylon blouse, and brown accessories. She had a carnation corsage.

Upon their return the couple will make their home in La Grange, where the bridegroom is employed.

Those from a distance attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Zoch and family and Raymond Zoch of Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Weaver and family of Craigsville, West Virginia; Miss Hattie Zoch and Rudy Zoch of Austin.
