Jane McIntosh Becomes Bride of Clarence Zoch

GIDDINGS, April 16—Marriage vows were exchanged by Miss Jane McIntosh and Clarence Alvin Zoch Sunday in the First Presbyterian Church in Giddings.

... Mrs. Zoch is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George McIntosh of Giddings, who was graduated from Giddings High School and New-Orleans Commercial College in Louisiana.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Zoch of San Antonio. He is attending Texas University and working for the City Public Service Board in San Antonio. He was graduated from Thomas Jefferson High School in Fort Worth.

The Rev. Norman Dow read the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with pink gladiolus and stock, pale lilies and ranunculus. Pink satin bows marked many pews.

... Miss McManis, organist, played the wedding music, and Don Edwards was soloist.

Flowers Given

... The bride was given a bouquet by her father. She wore a lustrous bright princess gown of white "Chantilly" lace over tulle. The collar of the short jacket was pinned over the bodice and the waist was cinched with white tulle and sequins and veils.

... Her hair was a Juliet ring of lace, beques and pearl pearls with multi-strand pearl and her makeup was of pink carmine and white stipulations.

... She was attended by Miss Ann Blanche Wilford, maid of honor, and Miss Patricia Slocum, both of Giddings. They wore lustrous gowns of tulle tulle and lustrous of pink flowers. Each carried pink carnations in a red ribbon bud.

... Sharrn McIntosh, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. She was attired in the same white tulle.

The bridesroom was attended by Russell Maxwell of San Antonio as best man, and Ray E. Peterson of Austin and Joe Hittaly Jr. of Fort Worth as groomsmen, and Bobby Waters and Charles Kishler, both of Giddings, were ushers.

Reception

... A reception was held in the education building of the church. The bride's table, laid with a pink damask cloth, was centered with the bouquets of the bride and her attendants.

... In the honor party were Mrs. T. T. Dequarr of Houston, Mrs. Mollie Fisher and Miss Marian Tate of Giddings, Miss Betty Dwyer of Fort Worth and Miss Rose Marie Fisher and Mrs. Kate Paul McPhee of Austin.

... For her daughter's wedding Miss McIntosh wore a lustrous gown of tulle lace over tulle, and Mrs. Zoch wore white tulle. Both had pink carnations and pink carnation corsages.

... Mr. and Mrs. Zoch left for a wedding trip to Mexico after which they will live in San Antonio. The bride was wearing a tulle lace gown with white tulle and pink carnation corsage.

From Austin

... Austin guests for the wedding were Emma and Madeline Iron Adams, Roy Peterson and Bill Williams, Mace Hillen and Edna York and Glenn Fisher and Vernon Harrison Jr.

... Pre-wedding parties for the bride included a christening and silver shower given by Mrs. Mary Lee Burns and a luncheon shower given by the Women of the Presbyterian Church. The rehearsal dinner was given by Mrs. James Don E. Slocum, Fred McLeod and M. V. Tate of the Tate home.
