

ZOCH — SCHAEPER NUPTIALS SOLEMNIZED

Miss Gladys Irene Zoch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman T. Zoch, became the bride of John Henry Schaeper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Schaeper of Waco, in a double-ring ceremony at the Immanuel Lutheran Church in Giddings Saturday afternoon at 4:30. The Rev. Max Stuttmann officiated.

Mrs. Milton Schroeder sang the Lord's Prayer. Teacher Henry W. Stroebel played the nuptial music.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory slipper satin, fashioned with a pitted bodice long tapering sleeves, round yoke trimmed with lace and scallops in the skirt and around the yoke. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held by a sweetheart headdress of lace. She carried a white Bible with a corsage of 7 white carnations on it. She also wore a pearl necklace.

Miss Ruth Zoch of Houston served as maid of honor. She wore a dark rose gown and carried yellow roses and wore a dark rose bonnet. Her dress was fashioned like the brides'.

The bridesmaids were Miss Lucille Noack of Serbin, Miss Pearl Reuther of Lincoln, Miss Polly Markum and Miss Lou Schaeper of Waco wore gowns of Aqua with matching bonnets. They carried hearts of red roses.

Albert Hempel served as best man and the groomsmen were Walter Krause of McAllen, Elon Krause of Serbin, Edward Schaeper of Waco and Paul Zoch of Houston.

The ushers were Gerhard Noack and Lorenz Koster.

Mrs. Zoch, mother of the bride wore black. Mrs. Schaeper, mother of the groom wore navy blue. Each wore white chrysanthemums corsages.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table was laid with lace and was centered with a beautiful wedding cake embossed with white sugared roses, topped with miniature bride and groom. It had 5 hearts on it.

Barbecue and all trimmings were served to 160 people. Miss Phyllis Symm was in charge of the bride's book.

The couple took their wedding trip to Mexico. They will make their home in Boerna, where the groom is employed. For travel the bride selected a grey suit and wore a corsage of white carnations.

The 'Star' joins the many friends of the couple in extending to them best wishes for a happy future.
