

Zoch-Weaver Rites.

An impressive double ring ceremony took place at 11 o'clock Sunday morning at the Holy Cross Ev. Lutheran church in Warda when Miss Irene Zoch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin T. Zoch and Richard P. Weaver of Craigs-ville, West Virginia, were united in holy matrimony. With the Rev. P. C. Eifert officiating.

Traditional wedding music was rendered by Prof. Aug. Lange with the congregation singing the hymns "Oh Perfect Love," and "All Depends on Our Possessing."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely gown of white bridal satin fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and scalloped bodice with long sleeves terminating in points over the wrists. The full skirt fell into a long train. Her full-length veil of illusion was caught at the head with a crown of seed pearls. She carried a corsage of carnations centered by an orchid. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls, gift of the groom.

Miss Hattie Zoch attended her sister as maid of honor. She was gowned in white and wore a yellow gladioli corsage. Nadine Marie Zoch, cousin of the bride, was flower girl and wore a white dress, corsage and carried a white basket.

The bridesmaids were Misses Evelyn Zoch, sister of the bride, Hildegard Buscha, cousin of the bride, Edna Siegmund and Florence Urban. All wore gowns of white marquisette with corsages of peach gladioli.

The groomsmen were Victor Buscha, Raymond Zoch, Curtiss and William Walther. Kenneth Pingley served the groom as best man. Ushers were Milton and Gus Zoch.

Mrs. Zoch, mother of the bride, wore a grey floral prints Mrs. Weaver, mother of the groom, wore aqua crepe. Each wore a corsage of white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents where a delicious barbecue dinner with all the trimmings was served to numerous relatives and friends on a linen laid table that was graced with silver candle holders, with floral and greenery arrangements which formed a background for the beautiful the beautiful flowers and also all others who gave their assistance to lighten our burden.

Thank you again and may God bless you.
