FOERSTER - FERGUSON

Miss Pearl Ferguson, one of the teachers in Giddings school and Mr. Curtis A. Foerster of Paige were married Tuesday evening by Rev. Guy B. Duff at his residence, La Grange, in the presence of immediate relatives and friends. The ceremony was read before an altar of rosepink crepemyrtle, Boston ferns and candelabra with white tapers.

Given in marriage by her father of Houston, the bride wore an olive-drab wool Gabardine suit with white accessories. Her only jewelry was a three-strand pearl necklace, a gift of the groom. Her turban of snow-white feathers had a shoulder length veil, and her corsage was of gardenias and stephanotis. Miss Pauline Duff was maid of honor. A. J. Foerster, Jr., attended his brother as best man.

At the reception after the ceremony, Miss Maurice Taylor presided at the ring-shaped cake, and Mrs. R. A. Falke, Jr. served the punch.

After a wedding reception, Mr. and Mrs. Foerster will be at home in Giddings and the groom will soon leave for the Navy.
