Capt. D. Hielscher Returns to States

Captain Dalton W. Hielscher, United States Marine Corps Reserve returned to the states on July 4 after completing his fifth tour of duty overseas.

He joined the Marine Corps in 1938 upon graduation from Giddings High School. His last station was in Japan and The Hawaiian Islands. Mrs. Hielscher and the three children have been residing in Fort Worth, Texas, which was their previous home while Capt. Hielscher was Instructor-Inspector of the Fort Worth Area.

Their next station will be Washington, D. C. where Capt. Hielscher will be attached with the United States Naval Gun Factory. They plan to spend a week on the farm with Otto W. Hielscher before moving to Washington, D. C. during the month of July.
