HOME ON LEAVE

Otto Knippa, who was assigned to six weeks of schooling in New York early in November returned home New Year's Eve to spend a 20-day leave with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Ben Knippa. Otto joined the Navy several years ago, and served the U. S. at Guam until last October when he was sent back to the States. After his leave he will leave for New Orleans, La. to answer his assignment at the Naval Base there.
