

The Giddings News

October 30, 1942

Oscar Schkade and son Gilbert were callers at the News office Monday. The family came down Sunday and returned Monday. Gilbert is leaving for the army right away. One other son is already in the army. Oscar says that the wheat and oat crops around The Grove were a total failure this year on account of the green bug.