On Way Home

Clark AFB — Technical Sergeant William H. Schneider, son of Mrs. Max Schneider, Route 4, Box C-19, Bryan, recently completed a tour of duty with the U. S. Air Force in the Philippines.

He is now on his way to the United States on board the U.S. Naval Transport General Aultman, accompanied by his wife, Mrs. Iris A. Schneider, and their children, Marjorie, 8, and Dorothy 4.

During their stay in the Philippines, Sergeant Schneider and his family resided at the military dependents housing area at Clark Air Force Base, 60 miles north of Manila. It was at this overseas base where Sergeant Schneider was assigned to the 13th Air Force performing duties as communications inspector.

Entering the military service for the first time in July 1942, Sergeant Schneider was stationed in Australia, New Guinea, and the Philippines, during World War II. He enlisted in the U. S. Air Force in February 1951 and came for his second tour of duty in the Philippines in January 1952.

Sergeant Schneider's next duty station will be at Goodfellow Air Force Base, Texas and will be assigned to Detachment 1900-7.
