

The Giddings News

August 18, 1922

John Guest and wife returned Saturday from their trip to Germany. He reports a pleasant trip for each. John says that the people over there are restless and are expecting another war soon, that the monarchists are not satisfied with the republic. He said that many of the laborers had been on strikes and even the renters on the farms had struck in places.