Rev. Wiemers and family have returned from New Braunfels where he visited Mrs. Weimer's people. A family reunion was held, at which the ten children were all present, representing the following professions: cotton buyer, nurses (2), teachers (2), ranchman, R'y. mail clerk, doctor, ranchmen (2). The sons-in-law increased the number of professions by three, adding a teacher and two ministers. Rev. Wiemers enjoyed the occasion as well as fine fishing in the Guadalupe.
